

The 36th Chinese Control Conference

Plenary Panel Session Speaker

Chenghong Wang was born in September 1, 1955. He is a professor of National Natural Science Foundation Committee, and serves as a vice president of Chinese Association of Automation. His research interests include control theory and application, theory and application of system reliability, discipline development strategy and related policy research.