

The 36th Chinese Control Conference

Plenary Panel Session Speaker

Ding Liu graduated in M.E from Shaanxi Machinery Institute and started his teaching career there from 1987. From 1991 and 1992, he visited Fukui University in Japan as a visiting scholar. In 1997 he received the Ph.D. degree in control science and engineering from Xi'an Jiaotong University. From 2004 to 2015, he worked as the president of Xi'an University of Technology. He is currently a Professor and the director of National Engineering Research Centre. He received two awards of national teaching achievement in 2009 and 2014 respectively and two awards of national science and technology in 2012 and 1997 respectively. Since 2013, he has been the vice director of Automation Steering Committee of Ministry of Education.